

CV Annelen Schmidt-Vollenbroich (*1986)

Annelen Schmidt-Vollenbroich is an architect and co-founder of Nidus. The company specializes in the development of existing properties.

Annelen studied architecture at ETH Zurich and KIT Karlsruhe and real estate economics at IREBS. Before founding Nidus, she worked in various architectural offices and taught at KIT Karlsruhe and the University of Siegen, among others.

She was a scholarship holder of the German National Academic Foundation and is a board member of the Cologne Architecture Prize.

Portrait: Volker Conradus